MOSCOW WILL ONCE MORE BECOME RUSSIAN CAPITAL SAYS DISPATCH ON STARTLING SITUATION OF RUSSIANS

German Advance Continues in Face of Peace Treaty Signed and Bolsheviki Government and Civil Population of Petrograd Flee Inland.

FIGHTING SENTIMENT IS SPREADING AMONG RUSSIANS OF THE INTERIOR

Ensign Krylenko Demands Cessation of Hostilities On Part of German Commanders and Asks for Explanation of Their Action.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Petrograd is being evacuated by the Bolsheviki government. Moscow, the ancient capital, again is to become the seat of the Russian government, while Petrograd is to be made a free port.

The population of the capital is quitting it hurriedly and various government departments are removing further inland away from the German invaders. Bolsheviki councils in Moscow and provinces are said to be more opposed to the Germans and a separate peace than those in Petrograd.

Previous reports that the hard terms of the German peace treaty which takes from Russia thousands of square miles in Europe and Asia would be accepted by the all-Russian Congress of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates, indicated also the non-peace element in the Bolsheviki ranks was gaining the upper hand. Evacuation of Petrograd was mentioned as one of the measures the war party proposed.

An official Russian statement received in London today says Ensign Krylenko, the Bolsheviki commander-in-chief, has sent a message to the German and Austrian chief commanders, stating the Germans and Austrians still are fighting notwithstanding the conclusion of peace.

Ensign Krylenko asked whether the German high command has taken all steps necessary for the cessation of hostilities.

SUPREME MILITARY COUNCIL FORMED

The Petrograd official news agency announces a supreme military council has been formed for defense of the country. The commissioner for military affairs has issued a decree ordering that the entire people be armed.

HUNS PREPARE ON ITALIAN FRONT

According to Italian official dispatches received in Washington today there are renewed possibilities of an Austro-German stroke on the Italian front. Important movements of enemy troops were effected during February.

HOLY WAR IS AT HAND IN RUSSIA

(Associated Press Cable)
Petrograd, March 6.—The Bolsheviki leaders are prepared to withdraw even as far as to the Ural mountains rather than submit to a defeat of the revolution, said Leon Trotsky, foreign minister in an interview today with The Associated Press.

M. Trotsky said that if the Bolsheviki could go back to the state of affairs which existed last October before the overthrow of the Kerensky government they would repeat the whole program put through since that time.

"In October we did not exclude the possibility of a holy war," he declared. "Now we consider such a war possible. The soldiers' and workmen's delegates must now fight for organization and order."

GERMAN STRENGTH IS INCREASING

LONDON, March 6.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Germans are still adding to the number of their divisions on the western front, General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, declared in his weekly talk with the Associated Press today.

The Germans now have 16 divisions more than the Allies in the west, he said, but this did not mean they were in superior strength as the Allied divisions were numerically larger.

General Maurice said the Entente still held the superiority in rifles, guns and aircraft, but that this superiority was diminishing.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON JAP PLAN

United States Has Not Exchanged Communications With Japan and Plans No Protest.

Washington, March 6.—It was stated authoritatively today that the United States has sent no communication to Japan on the subject of action in Siberia and that if any views of this government are expressed they will probably be conveyed to Great Britain, through which the United States has received all its information on the situation.

It was stated further the United States has not assented, dissented, or protested, and without any exchange of written communications Japan already understands the friendly attitude of the United States and disposition to take no part.

In addition Japan also understands that the United States credits her with disinterested purpose of action in Siberia should any be taken.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 6.—New decorations and insignia for American soldiers ordered today by the War Department in order of their value are a distinguished service cross, distinguished service medal, war service chevrons and wound chevrons. Women are eligible to receive both the cross and the medals.

The "D. S. C." of the American army is to be a bronze cross of appropriate design and a ribbon to be worn in lieu thereof, to be awarded by the President or by the commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces for "extraordinary heroism" in connection with military operations against an armed enemy of the United States under circumstances which do not justify the award of the medal of honor.

SITUATION STARTLING

(Associated Press Cable)

London, March 6.—Sir John E. Ellerman, controlling owner of several steamship lines speaking today at a meeting of the chamber of shipping declared he believed he was right in saying the whole output of shipping in this country was not enough to replace the losses by marine causes alone leaving the losses by enemy action yet to be made up.

PLANNING TO COMPROMISE ON WAR BILL

Difference on War Finance Cooperation Bill May be Adjusted by Administration Leaders Surrendering Points.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 6.—Faced by apparently increasing opposition among Democrats as well as Republicans, administration managers of the war finance corporation bill today discussed compromising various provisions under attack, principally that to license security issues.

Opposing that principle upon which the bill is drawn, Senator Harding declared the nation has gone "war mad." "I can see nothing in this bill which could create four billion dollars of additional wealth in this country," he said.

"There has been many appeals for Congress to modify the revenue measure to enable industry to meet the war and excess profits taxes but that has been met by the opposition by the men who run things at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue. Unless something is done to permit these institutions to meet their extra taxes, every dollar of reserve in banks in Ohio will be wiped out."

INCREASED RATES FOR TELEPHONES AFTER APRIL FIRST

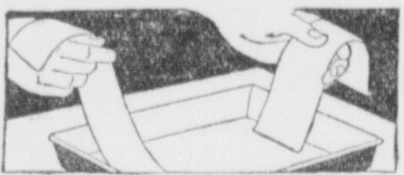

Individual Residence Lines in This City Only Ones Not Affected by Increase Asked by Ohio State Telephone Company—New System on Collecting Announced.

Y. M. C. A. AIDS IN THRIFT STAMP SALE

By placing War Savings stamps on sale at each of its 68 service huts in the 20 military centers of the Central Military Department the Army Y. M. C. A. is actively engaged in the promotion of thrift among the soldiers and in aiding the government in financing its war program, according to an announcement received here.

Already, it is stated, the 300,000 enlisted men mobilized in the middle west are contributing generously to the appeal of the government to take their share of war savings stamps, even though a large majority of them have invested in liberty bonds and government insurance, on which they are still making payments.

With the stamps on sale in the 68 service huts of the Y. M. C. A., there accessibility to the soldier and sailor is made easier and more certain.

Printed matter telling of the advantages of purchasing stamps, both to himself and his country, is being distributed by the Y. M. C. A. secretaries as well as placed in a conspicuous place in all the green huts which thousands of soldier boys frequent. A special fund has been set aside by the National War Work Council for the purchase of stamps to be sold again to the soldiers.

The Army Y. M. C. A. will thus act as a repository for War Savings Stamps and the service will be rendered without charge as a part of the established program of the association to promote thrift among the men of the National Army.

SUPT. NELSON IS AIDING IN WORK OF TESTING CORN

Declares There is Plenty of Corn in Fayette County for Seed, But Advises Test of Every Ear Selected—Willing to Show How to Make Test.

County Superintendent of Schools O. S. Nelson is engaged in the work of aiding the farmers test their seed corn, and as a result of tests he has made and is making, announces that it is his opinion that there is an abundance of seed corn in Fayette county to meet all needs, but an ear by ear test is absolutely essential before planting, unless the corn is of 1916 crop.

The small, early maturing corn also is found to give a high test, including Claxton corn generally. The larger, late maturing corn is the chief type to guard against in the selection of seed this year, and every ear should be tested to insure a proper start for a corn crop, is the opinion of Superintendent Nelson.

At the present time Superintendent Nelson is making four kinds of tests—planting in sawdust, sand, soil and by the "rag doll" method. If any farmer does not know how to make proper tests, he is invited to drop into Superintendent Nelson's office in the basement of the court house and there speedily learn the simple and best way to make the tests.

One of the tests on display in the window of Superintendent Nelson's office shows corn 6 1-2 inches in height, every grain of the corn planted having produced a stalk.

Most of his tests are made in boxes, across which strings have been drawn so that squares are formed, and by corresponding numbers on the sides of the boxes, and numbers on the various ears in the test, he is able to pick out the good from the bad without difficulty.

SYNOPSIS NO. 1.

In "Shirley Kaye," which will be shown at the Colonial Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Clara Kimball Young displays her versatility by creating a role different from the persecuted women she has portrayed so often in the past. In this picture, from the successful play of the same name which is directed by Joseph Kaufman, Miss Young acts the role of Shirley, the vivacious daughter of Edgerton Kaye, president of the great Union Central R. R. He holds his position through his descent from "Pirate" Kaye who founded the line, rather than through any executive ability of his own.

T. J. Magen, the brusque financier from the West, ably delineated by George Fawcett, has bought the house next door to the Kayes; he cares not at all for the society life of the East, while his wife is worried by her many servants, but his "flapper" daughter yearns with all her heart to break into the society whirl, where Shirley Kaye reigns supreme. "T. J." and John Rowson, his young associate—who incidentally hates all women, especially Easterners—secure a majority of the proxies of Union Central shareholders, and the ousting of Edgerton Kaye is a matter of days.

With breaking heart, he tells his daughter of the impending blow—she rises to the situation; and how she plays the society game, combining it with high finance to save the family fortunes, is a stirring tale. At the same time she finally wins the love of John Rowson, which brings into the story of American business and social life an absorbing thread of heart interest.

WHY SUBMARINE HAS NOT ATTACKED

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Christiania, February 18.—Vessels sailing between America and Norway outside the danger zone and not touching British ports lately have not been attacked by Germans probably more in their own interests than for any special love of Norway. Germany for a long while has not been able to send food to Norway and as far as known has not promised to do so even if Norway refused to accept American conditions for food export to this country.

German vessels sailing to Norway must now have provisions, oil and kerosene for the whole round trip and will only in exceptional cases be allowed to get small quantities of Norwegian products.

Some great Norwegian factories producing articles for export to Germany are run by German coal, oil and kerosene as are fishing vessels obtaining fish for export to Germany.

Norway at present receives from Germany steel and iron for construction and is absolutely dependent on Germany for the import of potassium compound kainite which is used extensively for fertilizing.

Each department of the Browning Club is striving to make the last program of the year under its sponsorship well worth remembering and the Household Economics department succeeded excellently in this purpose Tuesday night. The President, Mrs. Martha E. Mark, turned over the program to Miss Gertrude Channell, Vice Chairman.

Mrs. Roma Brown presented a splendid paper on "Dress Reform." Among many practical suggestions Mrs. Brown advocated three specially desirable rules—to dress for efficiency—to dress within one's income and to dress appropriately for all occasions. She also brought out the desirability of dressing with individuality and the danger of following the latest style regardless of whether it was becoming or not.

There was cordial response to the writer's views that school girls would much better have fewer clothes and more substantial than a different dress for every day and attention was called to the humiliation which over dressing by school girls with plenty of money causes girls of small means.

"Home and Its Relation to the Community" was the subject of a fine paper, an incentive to high standards in the home, by Mrs. Dinah Persinger.

This country is a gigantic gathering of more than a million people and upon the homes of this multitude is laid the foundation for the governing of towns, cities and the nation. This foundation must be firm; it must stand for law and order.

Mrs. Persinger brought out the thought that this war; tho so horrible, will surely teach our boys discipline and respect for authority and those boys whose parents, who have already taught respect for law are the boys who will forge ahead while others will be left behind.

The writer spoke of the wonderful privilege to live in this crucial time and to be able to contribute a son to the greatest cause the world has ever known. Private Peat has put it, "there is no school on earth to equal the school of generous thoughtfulness which is found on the battle fields of Europe today. There we men are finding ourselves in that we are finding true sympathy for our brother man. We have everything in common. We have the hardships of the trench and the nearness of death. The man of title, the Bachelor of Arts, the bootblack, and the millionaire's son meet on common ground. We wear the same uniforms, we think the same thoughts; we do not remember what we were, we only know that we are soldier's fighting in the same great cause."

Mrs. Frank Jackson read an entertaining article.

Miss Dorothy Parrett delighted the club members with two vocal solos, Miss Marie Sharp accompanying.

The Club has decided to take up for next year's study, "Our Country" and miscellaneous subjects and engage in active war work.

The G. A. R. hall presented a gay scene Tuesday evening, when nearly two hundred assembled for the W. R. C. masquerade.

The hall was elaborately decorated in the national colors and formed a patriotic setting for the merry throng of masqueraders.

At the appointed hour Miss Annette Stafford played the summoning chords for the grand march, which was led by Mrs. Lettie Dews and Mrs. Mac Chaney, cleverly impersonating a bride and bridegroom. Following their lead came a motley gathering representing all peoples and types; army officers and foreigners, especially numerous.

Mrs. C. F. Bonham won the ladies prize as an old colored Mammy, her make up splendid and her bird care, with stuffed canary and mouth harp accessories that drew great applause. The children's prize, a box of bonbons, went to little Margaret Dearn, a cunning little boot black.

The evening was one of continual merriment.

Refreshments were served by the executive committee, of which Mrs. B. F. Leland was chairman. The committee also included, Mrs. Charles Bonham, Mrs. J. F. Adams, Mrs. Vert Briggs, Mrs. Jennie Taylor, Mrs. Laura Ott, Mrs. Sarah Sollars, Mrs. Will Hay, Mrs. Lon Thompson, Mrs. Valentine Hoppess, Mrs. M. O. Ireland and Mrs. Angeline Mills.

Quite a nice sum was netted for the treasury.

Mrs. Gay Townsend is entertaining eight girls with a jolly little dinner and slumber party tonight.

The party includes, Misses Opal and Gladys Williams, Opal Martin, Mary Stewart and Josephine Curtis, of Sabina, Elizabeth DeWees, Juana DeWees and Mrs. Warner L. Southard.

The Cecilians presented an exceedingly attractive program Tuesday afternoon, with a good attendance of both active and associate members.

Mrs. Netta H. Ballard gave the Monitor Review and Miss Del Lannum the current event reading, Mrs. Elva H. Kelley played a beautiful Grieg number, "To the Spring."

Mrs. Chester Hall, one of the new members who has a contralto voice of much sweetness, sang "Waiting." Two piano numbers were presented by Mrs. Myrtle C. Klever—a brilliant Etude de Concert—Ambrose—and a pretty arrangement of the Rosary.

The club greatly enjoyed a reading "The Last Word"—Van Dyke—most effectively given by Miss Irene Tobin, an associate member.

A lovely vocal solo—Sunbeam—Roland—by Mrs. Lona G. Hughey and an artistic piano rendition of "Canzonette A Flat Caesar—Cin—by Mrs. Eva T. Craig, closed the program.

Misses Myrtle Eather and Jessie Rowe pleasantly entertained the girls of the "Toujours Pretes" club, Tuesday evening at their home on

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF FAYETTE'S STOCK

Patterson Bros. sold to W. Bruner Axley, of Madisonville, Tenn., on Tuesday, a load of mares and mules, which the buyer shipped to Asheville, N. Carolina.

While here Mr. Axley visited several of our prominent farmers, expressing himself as being highly surprised at the extra quality of the hogs, cattle and horses which stocked the farms. He could not see why with the fine mares they have here that Fayette county does not raise mules, adding that he was taking this load of mares to North Carolina to be used for the purpose of raising high priced mules.

BOARD AT WORKS ON THE INCREASE

At a meeting held in Springfield Monday between the Clark county officials and members of the Greene county workhouse board arrangements were made to boost the price of maintaining Clark county prisoners in the Xenia workhouse to 67 1/2 cents per day. The old rate was 55 cents per day. The local board asked 70 cents per day but the Clark county officials objected and a compromise on 67 1/2 cents was finally arrived at and a contract will go into effect on April 1st.—Xenia Gazette.

"SHIRLEY KAYE" AT COLONIAL THEATER

In "Shirley Kaye," Clara Kimball Young plays the title role of a young society girl, queen of the Long Island set, who is suddenly plunged into the whirlpool of high finance by the threatening danger of her father's overthrow from the presidency of the Union Central R. R., which her father "Pirate" Kaye had founded. His two adversaries, T. J. Magen, a brusque Western financier, and his young associate, John Rowson, she fights with different weapons—gaining the admiration of the first by the earnestness of her struggle on behalf of her own, and winning the love of the other, despite the fact that he "doesn't give a rap for any woman" especially Easterners.

At the same time she sponsors Daisy, "T. J.'s" spoiled young daughter and the apple of his eye, introducing her into society, for which her heart longs; also she provides her with a devoted lover, Earl Rosselving, a thoroughly likable representative of the English nobility.

Developments arise speedily and Shirley meets them briskly and confidently, overcoming every obstacle; and in her characterization, Miss Young intersperses the many tense scenes with a winning and sparkling comedy touch, and with a love story of heart-interest that grips the audience.

The National American German Alliance

There has been much in the papers and talk in Congress lately about the National German-American Alliance.

This society is composed of Germans by birth or their descendants residing in the United States. It was regularly incorporated under an act of Congress about twenty years ago, and its advertised object was to promote the interests of Germans in this country, and to promote a propaganda to compel the teaching of the German language in schools, and incidentally to oppose all temperance legislation. Another motive was to keep before the people the beauties of German rule, efficiency and "Kultur."

It was openly anti-British and did everything to promote prejudice against the British Government and won over many Irish, and Irish descendants.

A few days ago there appeared before the United States Senate Judiciary Committee a Mr. Ohlinger a lawyer of Toledo and president of the Chamber of Commerce of that city. His evidence was of a startling nature, showing that the real purpose of the Alliance was the forwarding of the interests of Germany under the direction of the Imperial General Staff. We have not space to give the outlines of the testimony, but it proved that the Alliance as an organization is traitor and should be punished as such. A bill was introduced in Congress to repeal the law granting the charter.

Why such a law is necessary we cannot see, the fact that the society is using its influence on behalf of the enemies of the United States would naturally revoke the charter, and we have plenty of laws under which any of its members who are guilty, can be convicted, if we will drop politics and enforce the laws and in lieu of internment camp substitute the firing squad, it will do more to discourage the Kaiser's agents than anything that can be done.

Japanese Intervention

When Russians began destroying bridges on the Trans-Siberian railroad between Lake Baikal and the Chinese frontier a few days ago it was generally taken as unofficial proof that the Japanese troops were about ready to intervene in Siberia.

Could there be any doubt that for her to do so would be clearly in the interest of civilization?

Japan has been co-operating with her European Allies, clary of any plans which might be construed as interference with their operations. The far East is her natural war sphere and there she has been content to do police duty.

But the situation has changed and European Allies are wanting Japan to take up the work in Siberia. Land forces are needed there and neither Great Britain nor any other allied nation has land forces available in the far East. It devolves upon Japan to bring the Siberian horror to an end. Humanity could dictate no other course, for the chaos in Siberia has brought added sufferings to a people already sufficiently burdened. Rumors of the terror and devastation caused by the "Red" forces and the lax control exercised by Leninist leaders give some idea of conditions in Siberia.

The feeling grows that not only on grounds of expediency, but also on grounds of strict morality, intervention in Siberia is justifiable—more than that—it is necessary as conditions definitely unfavorable to the cause of the allied nations have developed.

Japan has shown reluctance to enter upon such a campaign without America's approval, for that is about all that she could expect from this country. America's strength is needed by the European Allies in France.

There is little questioning that the majority of Americans are eager to see Japan advance upon Siberia. American interests demand that American supplies in Siberia be guarded from Germany and in this coincide with Japan's interests. Japan cannot afford to parley. Germany's control of Russia will bring her to the Pacific and admits possibilities of establishing her as a factor in far eastern politics.

The time has past for procrastination—one of the most helpful allies Germany has had—and there must be no more opportunity such as permitted German triumph in the Balkans.

Japan may have waited too long already.

Poetry For Today

FOR LIBERTY.

On the rock-bound coast of Ireland,
 Where those sons of freedom lie,
 Where the ocean waves resounding,
 Dash and throw their spray on high;
 Let their names live on forever,
 Wreathed in glory and in light;
 Fallen heroes of those nations
 Who are battling for the right.

Human hopes rise o'er the carnage
 That is trying souls of men;
 German plot and blackest intrigue
 Rouse the lion from his den;
 Allied soldiers in those trenches,
 Fight that all the world may be Safe, with Prussianism banished,
 Safe for true democracy.

Cannon ball and rifle bullet,
 Hand grenade and bomb from air,
 Tell the world if freedom conquers,
 Her rich blessings all shall share.
 Prussianism, autocracy,
 Crushed to earth shall rise no more,
 'Tis for this our soldiers perish
 And there lie on foreign shore.

O'er the billowed tide of ocean,
 Undismayed our loved ones go
 To avenge their murdered comrades,
 And to stay oppression's blow.
 Millions of our best and bravest,
 With the Allies o'er the sea,
 Will yet fight nor sheathe the saber
 Till the human race is free.

Let us then as loyal patriots
 Aid our country in her need
 By denying selves all luxuries,
 Help her armies thus to feed;
 Let us give in money, freely,
 Guns, munitions to supply,
 This, our part in freedom's struggle,
 Theirs, to fight, to bleed, to die.
 —S. K. Thurston.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

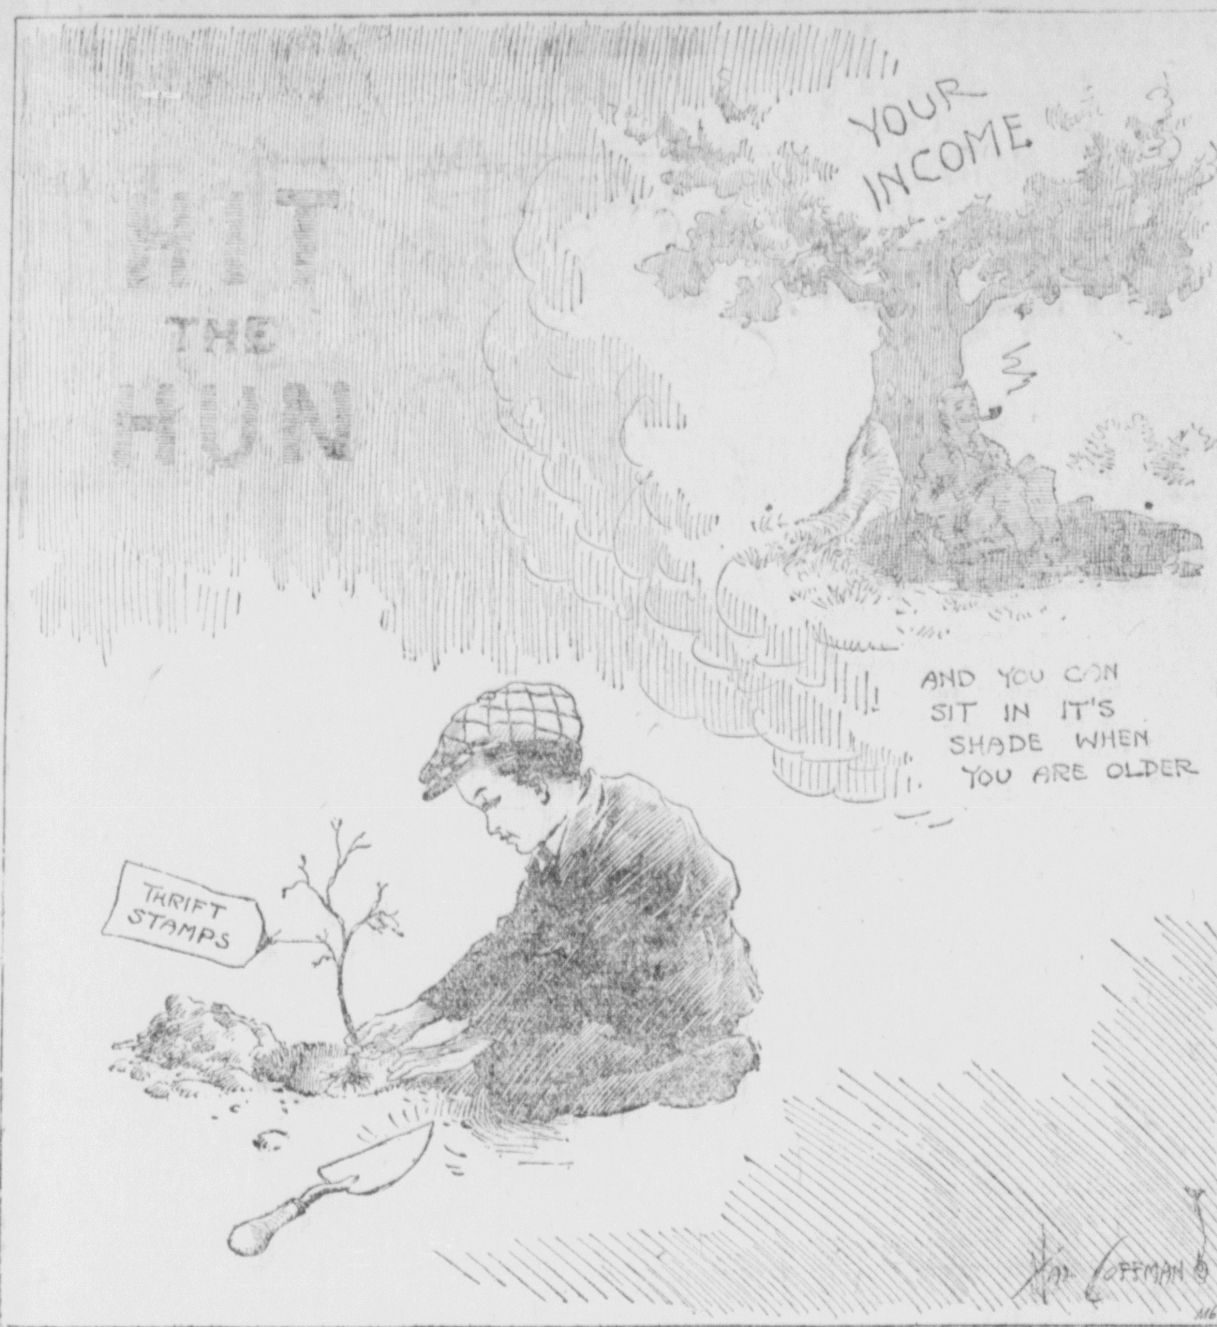

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

CARPENTERS AGAIN KICK OVER TRACES

(By American Press)
 Washington, March 6.—William L. Hutcheson, president of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, failing to get approval of representatives of the navy, the emergency fleet corporation and the metal trades unions of his proposal to put a spokesman of the carpenters on the wage adjustment committee in shipbuilding disputes, announced that an appeal would be taken to President Wilson.

"If the president does nothing then, then we are through," Mr. Hutcheson declared, "and it is up to the government to keep the men in line." "Does that mean a strike?" he was asked.

"How do I know?" was the answer. "They struck the last time and only returned to work in response to the president's appeal in the belief that the matter would be adjusted to their satisfaction."

Hutcheson said there were 50,000 idle carpenters who could be put to work building ships if the work was available. He indicated some of these men would find work in Canada by announcing that John J. McGee of New York has been offered the post of director of shipbuilding in Canada by the imperial munitions board, which asked him to furnish 5,000 wood workers and 6,000 iron ship-builders.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

March is the month of public sales on the farms.

In the past these sales have been the source of much food waste.

Women's organizations usually serve the dinners at these sales.

The dinners consist of several kinds of meat, as a rule, many varieties of pies and cakes, bread and biscuits.

Women can prepare appetizing dinners of these sales without waste by planning in advance.

Make your bread and pies victory products.

If the sale is held on a meatless or wheatless day, make the meal conform to the food program.

The patriotism of the farmers' wives may be judged by the meals they have at the country sales.

TREATMENT IS "MAGNETIZED" WITH RADIUM

Emanations of Pure Radium Are Included in This New Rheumatism Medicine Which the Manufacturers of Tanlac Vouch For.

Place a bit of steel against a piece of steel that is magnetized and it also becomes magnetized.

Treat a piece of susceptible material with a bit of genuine radium and it becomes charged with the radium emanations that are constantly escaping from pure radium. It becomes "magnetized" with radium.

That is how the tablets included in Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment which is just being placed on the market, are prepared. Each tablet contains four mache units of genuine radium emanation.

Radium is one of the most efficient curative properties for rheumatism known to medical science. But radium treatments in the past have been enormously expensive. Either the sufferer had to journey to some hot springs to drink the water containing the radium emanations or go to an institution known as an "Emanatorium" where the radium treatment was taken by inhaling the gas—or emanation—given off from a quantity of pure radium.

The cost of Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment, however, is no greater than the cost of ordinary medicines and you can try it in your own home.

Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment is complete. Besides containing the tablets charged with radium emanations it also includes a medicament for external use.

If you suffer from the pains and aches and twinges of rheumatism get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment today. You can get Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment at any good drug store where you buy Tanlac, the famous tonic. Adv.

NEARLY $100,000 WORTH OF SAVINGS STAMPS ARE TAKEN

Complete Returns in the County Still Lacking, But Estimated Amount Sold is Near $100,000—Men Who Failed to Work Will be Removed.

As a result of the big drive for the sale of War Savings and War Thrift stamps in Fayette county, Tuesday, indications are that the county went "over the top" in the initial drive with subscriptions right around $100,000—nothing which is highly pleasing to the Fayette County War Work Council, and whose pleasure will be shared by all Fayette countians who are awake to the necessity of the county doing its part, and every individual doing his or her part.

While virtually every precinct was worked according to schedule, and worked thoroughly, reports Wednesday indicate there are two or three where the workers failed to do what was expected of them and have made no move to complete their work.

THE OLD RELIABLE STILL IN THE LEAD

We have plenty of the substitutes to go with the flour. All of our laundry soaps 6c per bar. Mother's and Purity Oats 10c per box. Kellogg's Post Toasties and Jersey Corn Flakes 10c per box. Fancy sour pickles 10c per dozen. Apples, oranges, grape fruit, lemons, solid cabbage, sound onions. Nice Irish potatoes 38c per peck. Our low price still in force on beans and dried peaches. Killie the great germ, bug and bad odor destroyer 15c and 25c per box. Duffee's Cough Syrup, finest on earth for all coughs, colds and the grippe. Contains no opiates or poisons. Big six ounce bottle for 35c. J. W. DUFFEE & CO. The Old Reliable Cash and Basket Grocers.

These men will be dismissed from the War Work Council and others named who are more energetic and patriotic.

Partial reports from Madison township indicate it will be the banner township for the drive, and that between $14,000 and $15,000 may be the result of the day's work. Ellsworth Hopkins is the general chairman of that township, and has a corps of most able assistants.

Chas. McLean, of Wayne township, eastern precinct, reported in excess of $12,000 for the day.

Edgar Snyder, of the Second Ward, announced that subscriptions in that Ward would probably be near $20,000.

Three workers in West Union reported $3700. Reports are continuing to arrive, and it is believed that on Thursday or Friday something like a definite report will be obtainable.

DAVIS HAYS DIES AT AGE OF 93

Mr. Davis Hays, aged 93 years, father of Mr. Addison Hays, of this city, passed away at his home in Piketon, Ohio, Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, after some three years of incessant suffering.

The deceased was formerly a resident of near Bloomingburg, and has large family connections in this county. He moved to Piketon some 20 years ago, and for the past three years has been ill. He would have attained his 94th year on August first, next.

Besides his son in this city, the deceased leaves a son, John B., in Springfield, Ohio; Joseph T., in Mechanicsburg, Ohio; and a daughter, Mrs. Maggie Smith, of Dayton.

The body will be brought to this city Thursday evening, and funeral services will probably be held Friday.

FAMOUS ARTIST A FORMER RESIDENT

In "The Week in Art Circles" column of Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer is found the following mention of a now famous eastern artist, who was born and grew up in this city, Theodore Wendel, a brother of Mrs. J. W. Duffee.

"Theodore Wendel, originally of Cincinnati and a fellow student of Joe De Camps, at the old McMicken school, one exhibition just not at the school of designs, is creating a great deal of attention with his one-man gallery of The Guild, of Boston Artists.

Boston is astonished over the fact that while they always knew Wendel as a fine painter of landscapes, they now meet him as a very forceful exponent of straight forward figure work.

This can hardly surprise us, since we remember that Wendel was one of the strong members of Duveneck's famous class in Florence and Venice.

Theodore Wendel was born in Washington C. H., Ohio. The successful career of Mr. Wendel has been followed with great interest by the friends of his early residence in this city.

BACK YARD GARDEN HIGHLY IMPORTANT

Ho! Attention Gardeners! Roll up your sleeves with the determination to feed the world if need be in 1918 and you can do it if you will, says today's bulletin from the National War Garden Commission of Washington.

The early fall freezing weather over large areas of the United States cut short some of the bumper crops in 1917 and now we must get into the gardening game harder than ever. If we will make up for the shortage feed ourselves and our allies, and not have an image of scant nourishment beckoning to us next winter. The 1917 campaign, while remarkable, was only a training camp behind the lines compared with what we must do in front-trench gardening in 1918.

Now is the time to form into little or big gardening companies, elect officers for the year, hold meetings to swap experiences and suggest methods of attack, invite speakers who have a message for you, study garden pamphlets, bulletins, seedsmen's catalogues and the gardening columns in the daily and weekly papers and the horticultural periodicals.

One of the most useful committees says the bulletin would be one made up of the most experienced gardeners of each neighborhood whose duty it would be to examine all of the garden spots and vacant land and advise those with little experiences as to what their proposed garden plot is best adapted to grow and what treatment it should have in preparation.

If some of the land is too wet, too poor, too hard a clay, or too light a sand to make into successful garden the committee should warn the gardener accordingly and thus head off a sad disappointment. Only land that promises results should be used for gardening.

Now is the time to get busy! Write to the National War Garden Commission, 219 Maryland Building, Washington, for a free garden primer and organization suggestions. This paper has arranged for you to get these by sending a 2-cent stamp for postage.

CLEANING STREETS OF MUCH REFUSE

The work of cleaning the paved streets of the city is being extended by Service Director Tracey, and some of the main thoroughfares not in the up-town district are being cleared of the mass of refuse which represents many months of neglect of the streets.

North street has been receiving attention, and in one square along one side of the street, 27 heaps of the refuse were shoveled up awaiting the arrival of wagons to haul it away.

The filth is being disposed of to help enrich Washington's war gardens.

EMMA GOLDMAN

ALEXANDER BERKMAN

New reasons why the Government considers Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, now serving a two-year sentence in the Federal prison at Atlanta, two of the most dangerous radicals in this country, are seen in letters made public by Attorney General Gregory. The letters were written to Berkman by Her Dayal, a Hindu propagandist who has been in Berlin since 1914 trying to organize a revolution in India. In these letters the Hindu asked for "earnest, sincere comrades, men and women," to come to Holland and join with other radicals and anarchists in planning the downfall of the British rule in India.

MORE SURPLUS IS TO HELP WIN WAR

The Fayette County Fish and Game Association, which some time ago invested in $350 worth of Liberty Loan bonds, has just invested in $200 worth of the War Savings Stamps.

At the Monday night meeting of the association plans for the annual picnic, to be held in June, were discussed.

15 FARM HANDS PLACED IN WEEK

During the past week the Fayette-Clinton-Pickaway free employment bureau placed 15 farm hands in this county.

It is expected that in the near future the territory will be so thoroughly organized that farm hands will be placed throughout the district.

WHOLE AERIAL UNIT MANNED BY U. S. FORCE

The First American Observation Balloon Appears On The American Sector.

American Artillerymen Set The Pace With Shell Fire

By Associated Press Dispatch.

With the American Army in France, March 5.—This has been a quiet day in the American sector northwest of Toul. The artillery on both sides seemed content to fire a few destructive shells. The shells were infrequent until late in the afternoon when the American artillery lived things up a bit, firing on a town where troops had been seen.

Aerial forces took advantage of the improved weather conditions. Groups of enemy planes came over for photographic work but were kept high in the air.

For the first time in the war an American observation balloon, fully manned and protected by Americans went up and this is the first complete unit of the American air service to appear in the field.

sympathy in which an earnest wish was expressed for his recovery.

For more than twenty-five years John E. Redmond fought for home rule in Ireland and for a majority of that time he was the recognized leader of Ireland's "struggle for liberty." As Chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party—the nationalists—he exerted a powerful influence in bringing about the creation of the Irish convention organized in July, 1917, to devise a system of government for the island.

When David Lloyd George, the British Premier, in that year offered two methods of settling the vexed Irish question, it was Redmond, who, as spokesman for the nationalists, rejected the proposition for a partition of Ireland and, instead, accepted Lloyd George's alternative plan for the convocation of the Irish Convention in which Irishmen of nearly all parties and creeds might meet in the effort to compose their differences and draft a constitution that would afford justice to all.

Redmond was one of the delegates to the convention which sat at various times at Dublin, Belfast and Cork in 1917 and 1918.

Born in 1851, son of W. A. Redmond, deceased, member of the British Parliament from Wexford, Ireland, John E. Redmond had sat almost continuously in the British House of Commons since 1881. There his parliamentary fights for home rule earned for him the sobriquet of the "stormy petrel of the House."

Redmond was well known in the United States, which he visited in 1908 and 1910, and Australia, where in 1883 he not only performed a great service for his party in directing the collection of a fund of more than $50,000 but found a wife in the person of Johanna Dalton, New South Wales heiress and beauty.

With the entrance of England into the war, Redmond immediately defined his position as squarely with the government in the earnest prosecution of the war. His support of the government won the unstinted praise of Cardinal Gibbons and the open and bitter condemnation of the Sinn Fein party, members of which at a public meeting accused him of being a traitor to the Irish cause.

THINK ONLY A FEW SAMMIES ON THE FRONT

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Paris, March 5.—The Germans persist in declaring they are not aware of the presence of American troops on the western front, writes the correspondent of the Temps, with the British army in France.

But he says all prisoners taken recently invariably say:

"Yes, we know there is a division of Americans in France and there never will be more. That is not enough to scare us."

HARES WIN

The "Hare and Hound" chase by the Juniors of the "Y" held Monday evening, resulted in a victory for Robert Tracey's hares over Selby Gerstner's pack of hounds.

The event is one of the "Y" regular program of athletic contests, and more will be held in the future.

WAR STAMP SALES

$172 was collected last week in the High School from the sale of thrift and war savings stamps.

It is not possible to tell the exact amount taken in, but it is possible that the total will reach $1,000.

FRENCH AVIATOR

LEUTENANT HENRI FARRE

Lieutenant Henri Farre, aviator and official war painter for the French government, is here with 130 paintings of aerial experiences on the western front, painted by himself. He will make a circuit of the principal American cities with his collection in an effort to raise funds for the benefit of the children of aviators killed in the war. There will be no sales, but admission will be charged to the exhibitions.

THE WONDERFUL SERPENT MOUND IN ADAMS COUNTY

Description of Some of the History of Great Serpent Constructed on Plateau in Adams County, 17 Miles Southeast of Hillsboro.

Nine feet from the eastern end of the oval, and partly enclosing it, is a crescent-shaped bank 17 feet wide. From the extremities of this crescent which are 75 feet apart, begin the jaws of the Serpent, formed by banks 17 feet wide and 61 and 56, respectively, in length, measured on the inside from the point of union with the crescent to their point of meeting, 47 feet from the convex or eastern edge of the crescent. The open jaws are shown as if the Serpent's head was turned on its right side, and the crescent embankment seems to have been designed to express this by uniting the open jaws across the mouth indicated by the triangular space. This design was also carried out by making the northern or upper jaw the longer of the two. The head of the Serpent across the point of union of the jaws is 39 feet wide and 15 feet high. From this point the neck extends eastward more than 100 feet, with a slight curve to the north. Then begins what may be called the body of the Serpent, making a graceful curve to the south, then winding to the north and east then again to the south, and westward down the declivity of the central portion of the hill, where another graceful convolution is made up the opposite ascent to nearly the same level as the head; here it folds round in another full convolution, and the tail follows with a long stretch to the southwest, terminating in a triple coil.

The end of the tail points across the deep gully in the hillside to the western end of the oval, which is 496 feet distant in an air-line, but 1,348 feet if measured from the western end of the oval to the neck of the Serpent, and then along the dorsal ridge to the tip of the tail, thus following all the curves. The average width of the body of the Serpent is about 20 feet and its height along the head and body is from 4 to 5 feet. From the beginning of the tail it gradually decreases in width and height until it terminates in a bank about a foot high and nearly 2 feet wide.

The graceful curves throughout the whole length of this singular effigy gives it a strange, lifelike appearance; as if a huge serpent, slowly uncoiling itself and creeping silently and stealthily along the crest of the hill, was about to seize the oval within its extended jaws. Late in the afternoon, when the lights and shades are brought out in strong relief, the effect is indeed strange and weird; and this effect is heightened still more when the full moon lights up the scene, and the stillness is broken only by the "who-hoo, who-hoo" of the bird of the night.

That such a work, so carefully designed and constructed under such difficulties, along this narrow ridge, terminating in the high, bold cliff, was planned and built under some powerful influence, we can but believe. And what other than a religious motive can be conceived? Have we not here the evidence of the former existence of that ancient faith, which, rising probably in the east, ages before historic time, and spreading over Asia, Africa and Europe, has not yet been wholly supplanted in India and Africa by later faiths?

"Why lies this mighty Serpent here? Let him who knoweth tell. Why lies it here—not here alone, But far to east and west.

The wonder-working snake is known. A mighty god confessed."

In the large conical mound, the skeleton of an adult man six feet tall was taken. After the interment had been made and covered with clay the mound was raised over the body to the height of ten or twelve feet and seventy feet in diameter. Some time subsequent to the building of the mound graves were dug on its top and sides and nine burials had taken place. During the exploration a number of stone implements were found.

At the southwestern portion of the plateau, four skeletons were taken. Evidences showed conclusively that these interments were very old, and were of people who once worshipped here.

East of the "cherry tree knoll" were found graves and the remains of an ancient fireplace as evidenced by the remains of pottery, bones of animals, etc. In one of the graves were found the remains of two skeletons that had evidently been beheaded, as after the most diligent search no remains of skulls could be found. In these graves was found an unusually large number of flint relics, etc. Could these have been brave officers who fell in battle, were beheaded, the bodies afterwards recovered and thus honorably buried?

What light is thrown back over one brief period of the great past by the study of this Serpent mound? Here on this commanding point of land, in many ways adapted to what we know of the ancient faith of men is an imposing structure in the form of a huge serpent guarding an oval inclosure within which is a mound of buried stones; all essential rites connected with the older faiths.

Exploration has shown that this Serpent was made many centuries ago and it is evident that a structure of such magnitude, so carefully planned and executed, was intended for some great purpose deeply affecting the people who made it.

Now another race has come, and the old shrine, cleared of rubbish, is again held sacred; not for ancient and awful rites, but for the study of future generations, when a wiser knowledge of the past in other centuries shall lead to a better knowledge of that of our own.

CONFEREES FIX LIMIT

(By American Press)

Washington, March 6.—Contention over the administration bill to create a war finance corporation continues in the senate after sharp clashes between its advocates and opponents and in an effort by Secretary McAdoo to compose their differences.

Attack was centered in the debate on the provision establishing a capital issues committee to license security issues of $100,000 and over. Republican leaders joining with Democrats of the banking committee leading a fight on the legislation. Administration leaders are doubtful as to whether the licensing plan can be retained.

Secretary McAdoo was invited to a conference of banking committee members and other senators and is said to have urged passage of the bill substantially as it is pending in the senate.

Later, during debate on the floor, Senator Hollis of New Hampshire, a Democratic member of the committee, broadly intimated that administration influence had dominated the consideration of the bill and that Secretary McAdoo had outlined just what matter should and should not be discussed or changed. This drew a sharp retort from Senator Simmons of North Carolina, in charge of the bill, who declared the assertions were "unjust and unfair."

Government control and operation of railroads probably will continue for 21 months after the war.

A tentative agreement fixing that time limit was reached by conferees on the railroad control bill as a compromise for two years, proposed in the house bill, and 18 months in the senate. The conferees expect the tentative agreement finally will be presented to congress.

The conferees recessed with the important question of rate making still in dispute. Complete adjustment of differences on the measure is expected soon, in view of intimations said to have come from President Wilson that he would not object to the senate bill's provision giving him power to initiate rates but retaining authority for their final review by the interstate commerce commission.

Another question still in dispute concerns provisions to prevent all possible interference, during government operation of the railroads, with regulatory and taxation functions of the states.

WALKER ON WAY

CLARENCE WALKER

It looks very much as if Clarence "Tillie" Walker, star outfielder of the Boston Red Sox, will wear a Yankee uniform this season. The deal between the Red Sox and Athletics, that sent Melvin to the Sox in exchange for Walker, Cady and Gardner has been settled. Huggins, manager of the Yankees, admits that he is to get an outfielder from the Athletics, and the fact that he has been after Walker for some time makes it certain that "Tillie" will come to New York.

CENTENARIANS AND THEN SOME

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Martins Ferry, Ohio, March 6.—One week ago Mrs. Alcinda Moore celebrated her one hundred and first birthday. Two weeks ago Mrs. Mary Brand became one hundred and one years old.

Mrs. Moore, when young, is said to have predicted that she would live to be 100 years old. She has exceeded the prediction by one year. She is the oldest member, both in years and length of membership, in the Baptist church here, having joined 80 years ago. When a young woman she saved her life by giving bread to Indians who threatened to kill her. Two of her eleven children were in the Civil war and she has thirty grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Mrs. Brand's chief worry is the war, as the thought of eating war bread does not please her. She is still able to carry coal, using a broom as a cane.
